Set amongst 1100 acres of lush green English countryside, the East Sussex National Resort provides the perfect retreat for both business and leisure travellers alike. Ideally situated near Brighton, Gatwick Airport, and offering easy access into central London, the hotel functions as both a quiet haven and a base from which to embark on bustling city adventures.

With 104 beautifully designed bedrooms, all overlooking the South Downs and our manicured golf courses, East Sussex National provides its valued guests with every comfort. The resort offers a health club and spa, award-winning restaurants, and two championship golf courses.

We are wholly equipped for business, with a wide range of meeting and event spaces available for hire. These secluded function areas are ideal for company conferences, exhibitions, and product launches. At East Sussex National, we are experts at our craft. Our function rooms also play host to countless celebrations, including spectacular weddings, social events and our renowned Wurlitzer concerts and Sunday tea dances.
